It is respectfully requested that the following amendment be entered in the above-identified application:

In the Claims

B1
A1
1. (Amended) A method for protecting poultry against coccidiosis, said method comprising inoculating chicks with an effective amount of an anticoccidial vaccine and providing a dietary regimen composition comprising an Echinacea supplement in an amount effective for enhancing an immune response to said vaccine and an ingestible carrier.

The above amendment is made in response to comments by the Examiner in the Office action. The amendment does not constitute new matter and thus does not affect the merits of the claim. A "Version with markings to show changes made" is attached hereto.
